- First man leads partner down the middle and up. Passing her in front of him, he presents her to second man.
- Second man and first woman dance down the middle with nearer hands joined, first man following. The woman turns by the right, retaining second man's left hand in right hand. She crosses arms, giving left hand to partner. First man with left hand takes second man's right hand and raises them high over first woman's head.
- First woman with first and second men dance up the middle. Second man breaks off and returns to own place.
- First couple poussette to the bottom of the dance on own sides. Second, third and fourth couples step up. Dance starts again with new top couple.
